

PAG submission on Beneficial Ownership proposals

Written by PAG

Saturday, 25 October 2014 11:07

The Government recently held a consultation to gather views on the Island's current regime for identifying the beneficial ownership of companies, and whether a centralised registry of such information would improve transparency. This is in line with the governments G8 commitments.

Attached is both the initial consultation document and the PAG response.